

NPX Honored by Goldman Sachs for Entrepreneurship

Lindsay Beck and Catarina Schwab of NPX Among 100 Most Intriguing Entrepreneurs at 2017 Builders + Innovators Summit

San Francisco, CA — October 19, 2017 — Goldman Sachs (NYSE:GS) is recognizing Lindsay Beck and Catarina Schwab, Co-Founders and Co-CEOs of NPX, as two of the 100 Most Intriguing Entrepreneurs of 2017 at its Builders + Innovators Summit in Santa Barbara, California. Goldman Sachs selected Lindsay and Catarina as two of 100 entrepreneurs from multiple industries to be honored at the two-day event.

NPX is an innovative company that is transforming how impact is financed in the nonprofit sector with a new financial product that links funding with impact, the Impact Security. The Impact Security allows a nonprofit to raise money from investors and then repay that money over time using performance-based donations from donors.

"The nonprofit funding environment is opaque and inefficient, which means that hundreds of billions of dollars are being wasted every year—at the expense of human lives and the environment," said Lindsay. "As we work with innovative donors and investors to launch a new, more efficient funding model, we are humbled to receive this prestigious award from Goldman Sachs," continued Catarina.

"Special thank you to Brian Bill, Creative Director at Goldman Sachs, and his team for producing a film that brings our work to life through the story of our client, The Last Mile, the first coding program and web development shop inside a U.S. prison."

"We are pleased to recognize Lindsay and Catarina as two of the most intriguing entrepreneurs of 2017," said David M. Solomon, President and Co-Chief Operating Officer at Goldman Sachs. "This is the sixth year that we've hosted the Builders + Innovators Summit where emerging business leaders gather to discuss their common interests in building prosperous organizations."

For more than 145 years, Goldman Sachs has been advising and financing entrepreneurs as they launch and grow their businesses. In addition to honoring 100 entrepreneurs, the Summit consists of general sessions and clinics led by Goldman Sachs experts, seasoned entrepreneurs, academics and business leaders as well as resident scholars.
